

O'Connell's Irish Bar – At your service!

O'Connell's Irish Bar is more than just a great place to unwind after a hard day at the office. We have, since March 2007, been serving up some top-quality bar food from our fully equipped kitchen. We want to give you all the chance to throw a really good party with top quality food to suit your needs and budget.

Buffets are available in O'Connell's or at a place of your choosing. Our library is available without rent during normal bar hours and can hold up to 20 people comfortably. Should your group be larger, the upstairs bar can be rented out. We can hold functions for up to 100 people in this area but 60 people can dine comfortably. Please enquire using the form below for more details.

Please remember that buffets should be booked at least 1 week in advance.

Below we've outlined some of our prepared menus to give you a flavour of what's available. Naturally though, our talented chefs are quite flexible and so, if you have your own ideas, he will be happy to throw something together especially for you!
